

NA SCÉALAITHE

THE STORYTELLERS

VALENTINA ZOCCA (ITALY)

Valentina Zocca is a storyteller from Italy with a broad repertoire of tales. She regularly performs in educational settings, nursing homes, community groups and for the public.

JOE BRENNAN (ÉIRE/IRELAND)

Joe Brennan from Wexford, has been telling traditional stories for over 20 years. He is author of Donegal Folktales and has written and performed a number of theatre performances.

DONNA WASHINGTON (US)

Donna Washington is renowned for her storytelling for children and adults from poignant and funny fables about the human condition to racy relationships stories to spine-tingling tales of terror.

MÁIRÍN MHC LOCHLAINN (ÉIRE/IRELAND)

As Ros a' Mhíl do Mháirín, ach tá cónaí anois uirthi i mBaile na mBrabhach. Bhuaigh sí Corn Neidí Frainc ag an Oireachtas. Déanann sí ceardlanna scéalaíochta in Éirinn agus thar lear. Roinneann sí a scéalta le sean is le hóg.

COLIN URWIN (N. IRELAND)

Described as 'keeping alive the tradition of the Seanchaí', Colin Urwin is a folk singer, songwriter and teller of stories drawn from the local legend and folklore of his native Co. Antrim.

CON Ó DRISCEOIL (ÉIRE/IRELAND)

Con's passion for the Irish language, nurtured at home and developed over years holidaying in Corca Dhuibhne, led him to a deep interest in traditional music, story and song.
